To Whom It May Concern,

As an organization, the Tennessee Titans mission is to be an elite franchise in the NFL and to enrich our communities by serving our patrons and fans with distinction. From a player development standpoint, it is our goal to enhance our player's personal and professional growth both on and off the field. Part of this is preparing our young men for life after football. This is why we decided to have Bob Jacobs, Founder & CEO of The Symbiosis Company, work with our players to help teach and prepare them for the next phase of their lives.

Bob is very knowledgeable in the area of networking, and he is a great resources for our players, especially in the Nashville area. This offseason Bob has provided a variety of networking sessions for our veteran players and rookies. Bob discussed the importance of networking and building relationships while being an active player in the NFL. The skills and techniques our players learned in these sessions has provided them the confidence to connect and network with the right people.

It's my pleasure to recommend Bob Jacobs and The Symbiosis Company for your team, business or organization. Bob is a tremendous resource in the space of networking and I'm confident that his program would make an impact on your team.

Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions you may have regarding Bob Jacobs and The Symbiosis Company. I am more than willing to connect with you and expand on my recommendation.

Sincerely,
